Hello Marc,

Meet Susan.

Susan is the new Program coordinator for the Washoe Tribe of Nevada and California.

She is coming up to speed on documents and history etc. and it would be helpful to have this document with all of the columns visible. (This version you sent has some hidden lines, and I don't seem to have authority to unhide them). Could you resend?

Lynda

And per our conversation would it be okay if the tribe added one column at the end...

for cross referencing their own in-house document numbers?
